

Documentary series
(12 x 52 min.)

A remarkable series that paints striking portraits of 12 of the world's megacities and its inhabitants. Through the eyes of ordinary citizens, we discover the love-hate relationship with their metropolis, and the joys, hardships and challenges that come with living in some of the world's most populated areas. We also discover their neighbourhoods, songs, workplaces and secret hideaways. And their cities unique rhythms, sights, scents and myriad colors.
