

Viva Americas

A Documentary series of 13 x 24:00

Produced by
FRAGAR|GT

Fragar GT proposes Viva Américas, an intelligent and well documented series presented from a clearly francophone perspective, that will allow viewers to go beyond the stereotype tourist approach and discover the amazing Americas.

With its francophone guests from different countries who currently live or who have spent time in the various regions, each episode of Viva Américas deals with social, cultural, sports or historical realities that define life on these continents.

Thus, the series presents a wide range of topics conducive to truly discovering what makes each of these regions, spanning from one end to the other of the Americas, so original and unique.

Viva Américas, a thrilling series about a fascinating world.

A window on cultures with a rich racial mix and history. A francophone's view of the vast and untamed Americas.
