

Voices of Tomorrow

Talk Show series
(200 x 26:00)

Kids Talk Productions gives young people a voice in society through educational programs, juvenile hall outreach, global assistance, and its hit television talk show, Voices of Tomorrow, which still airs after 10 years on the Los Angeles Channel, LA36 Educational Station and the Beverly Hills Channel 6 station to more than 2 million viewers in Southern California on a daily basis. Hosted by Ninon de Vere De Rosa, who is also the show's Executive Producer, it revolves around a new topic every day that allows young people to reflect on issues that affect them in their daily lives.

With topics ranging from Teens and Gangs, to Teens and the Media, Kids with Cancer, Life in Juvenile Hall to even Movie Star Teens, KidsTalk Voices of Tomorrow covers a broad spectrum in providing quality educational programming aimed at the younger generation and their families. To date, and with a total of approximately 400 shows produced, the show has garnered a total of 72 awards, including 20 Telly awards, one of the television industries highest honors.
