

MAKUSHAM

Variety & performance series

26 x 26:50 (Season 1 & 2) HD

The best way to enjoy the cultural richness of a community or its people, its shades and colors, is to gather its best artists in one place.

Whether indigenous or friends of them, they speak the language of their ancestors. The artists invited are from the eastern and western Canada as well as Quebec. Nearly thirty artists will express themselves in their style of music which is blues, rock, rap, reggae and folk with at the heart the Innu artist Florent Vollant. Focused on contemporary music including the traditional side, these 13 half-hours is a series of encounters and sharing that will soon become a rendezvous with the public of all ages.
