HER ULTRA, is an emotional, uplifting and life affirming documentary, regarding adventurous souls who post-pandemic, started looking for a new challenge and a way to reconnect with their true selves.

Eight women from various parts of the world, joined coach Hannah Walsh to train for a 250 km/155-mile Ultramarathon, above the Arctic Circle in Lapland, Finland. This film is unique from other racing documentaries, in that it is not a profile piece or race coverage. It is about a group of ordinary women, coming together to support each other and take part in this incredible event.
